BY CRAZED LOVER.

NIES PARIS MEETING.
PARIS, July 17.—The French foreign effice announces that no such meeting of pepresentatives of the powers to consider the Mexican situation as reperiod from Mexico City has been held in the French capital. Officials here know of no occurrence of a nature

HOW AMBASSADOR EXPLAINS HIS VISIT TO THE MEXICANS.

MEXICO CITY, July 17 .-- A formal statement was issued from the Ameribassador Wilson's departure in order to set at rest many wild rumors. This

"The Apphaenador's trip to Washingten is solely for the purpose of plac-ing before the Administration exact stion in a thorough way relative to the existing situation in Mexico. The trip has this purpose and no other. Construction should not be placed otherwise. The Amfor expects to return im stely after his conference with the President, possibly within two weeks. Mile wife will accompany him and return with him."

WALL STREET.

was on a very small scale, but Calif. Petroleum sold at a neat surplus out of his thousand i and closed at 1-2, showing a loss points over night. Canadian Pacific d at 21 5-2, a cecime of 17-2. Union trading during the first few was again influenced by the tendency, and our prices at y. Canadian Pacific opened 1 1-4 ed in Union Pacific, Reading and sed to the sharp break attracted to the sharp break

if. Petroleum issues.

common stock, which closed at washington, but now the city has grown fail to 24 h, and a loss of 8 up around it and made it a most described in the preferred.

While this was in progress
The previous tenant was Martin Little-ton of New York when he was in Conng and active, raising prices place, and California Petroleum ed again and sold down to and Canadian Pacific sold at Union Pacific at 146 8-8. Other

RF Linn "HELLO, SWEETHEART!" COSTS MASHERS $20 EACH

Youths Who Accosted Girls on

Street Also Get Beating From Aged Father.

the Harlem Court to-day. Magistrate an, roung bookkse re, that amount addressing Miss Leonors Dunmammy who would make him corn-pone and Maryland fried chicken. So a and her pretty cousin, Laura Grosserger, in this worn salutation of the man had dente on their faces and from a case used by William out of his pay envelope.

Secretary of Labor Wilson has been a, the aged but active parent of Duncan. he girls were walking on Lenox avenue treet. Mr. Duncan was limping alons rin and Ulman, who live in the shorhood, ambied alongside the sand spoke to them. They ran back it his came, but they got to their and turned on the old man. At a functure Policeman Noisa happed along and arrested the pair.

All CABINET OFFICERS attention with Secretary of the United Section with Secretary of State attention with Secretary of State attention with Secretary of State attention with Secretary of State EXCEPT BRYAN MANAGE TO LIVE WITHIN SALARIES

BRYAN-Large house at $4,000 a year; finds salary of $18,000 a year insufficient. DETARY OF TREAS-Army and Mary Club. ESCRETARY OF WAR GARRISON—In a Syc-MARKET - GREEKL

By Samuel M. Williams.

(Staff Correspondent of The Svening World.)

WASTENGTON, D. C., July 17 .- All

Bryan, are living within their $12,000 per year salaries, and most of them are eaving money besides. Certainly the richest member of the President's of-Soial family, Postmaster-General Bur-leson, is not exceeding the limit, so far as his Washington expenses go, and it is hinted that he is able to accumulate

Wilson Cabinet have set an example of modesty and frugality in their establishments and social pretensions. Not for many years has there been so little display as exhibited by the present Administration—excepting Mr. Bryan.

BRYAN'S HOME ONLY PRETEN-

TIQUE ONE IN CABINET.

The Secretary of State has the only

Washington, called the Logan house because it belongs to Mrs. John A. Lo-acquired the property twenty years grees. It is a large brick house of many grounds. The rental price is four thou sand per year, which is considerably less than some of the stone palaces tha lionaries who come to Washington to live. But four thousand rental means

The only other Cabinet officer to live in a house of presentions is Secretary of the Navy Daniels. He has a pretty yard in Woodley lane, one of the most property is part of the estate of Sens-tor Newlands, who is very rich and had the Benator was not looking so much for neighbor. Therefore, while Daniels's

LIVE ON HALF OF SALARIES.

The cost of living for the other Cabinet officers is much less than twelve thousand per year. In fact, so far as outward appearance would indicate half and good dinners for exceedingly reas onable price. His expenses there could be figured at $2,500 a year, so far as liv-

Secretary of War Garrison has a five room apartment in Stoneleigh Court one of the big apartment houses in lower Connecticut avenue. Such a ars per year. Mrs. Garrison makes it a charming little home for the Secre-tary, and it is no secret that they intend to live within his salary.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield could spend more than his governmental sal-ary if he chose to do so, for he has outside income from his manufacturing cliff dweller in an apartment house living in an inexpensive hotel near the Capitol, in a part of town at which society turns up its nose. His cost of living has been the least of any of the Cabinet, but in order to provide accom-

The Transportant of the apartment normally would rent twelve hundred or afteen hundred dol-to maintain and keep up style.

place with plenty of front and

POSTMASTER-GRUERAL BURLESCH — S m a 1 1 outs of rooms in a botel BURLESCH — I m TERIOB LAWS — I m bouse that has been his home for several years, comfortable but unpre-tentions, in good part of town. tortions, in good part of town. BORNTART OF AGRE-CULTURE HOUSTON— A rested house, small, but of refined toorte. BORNTARY OF COM-MERCE REDFIELD—

Modestly

iteenth and Eighteenth, a very nice part of town. The rental probably is mewhere near one hundred dollars pe month. The tastes of the Houstons are so refined and against display that it is the Cabinet officers, excepting Secretary safe safe to assert that they will not require all the Secretary's salary for the ne-LANE LIVES AS HE DID ON HIS

LOWER BALARY.

Secretary Lane of the Interior Depar ment has been a resident of Washing-ton for a number of years and contin-ues in his Wyoming avenue home, a ing but not extravagant place in a good neighborhood. As member of the Interstate Commerce Commission Mr. Lane received $10,000 a year salary and saved money on it. Since his pro-motion to the Cabinet and $12,000 salary he has not changed his style of living. from comment on Mr. Bryan's statemen his Government salary, but all of them find $12,000 a year ample for their needs and sufficient to permit of more or less custom and precedent have imposed on the Secretary of State more social ob-ligations than on other members of the Cabinet. He is required to give a num-ber of official dinners and receptions to the diplomatic corps and to entertain special representatives of foreign countries coming to Washington on missions pretentious establishments. John Hay had a show place and Robert Bacon, during his brief term of office, made great display in costly manner. ROOT SET THE PACE FOR LIV-ING WITHIN INCOMES. Philander Knox in the Taft Adminis tration paid $7,000 a year rent, while ever, broke the rule by living in an apartment because Mrs. Root did not wish to keep up a great house. Their places and it is scarcely possible that Mr. Root's cost of living came within his salary.

expense fund which is not accounted for. The necessities of diplomacy require secret expenditures for Govern-ment service, and such outlays are wholly within the discretion of the Sec-retary. The bills are audited and passed upon within the department, but not made public. The Secretary can charge up to this account such items of his social and official expenses as he deems house is better than the average Cabinet Past Secretaries of State have reimbursed themselves out of this fund, but to what extent is not known. Mr. Bryan is drawing a very strict line on himself in the use of this fund for his that sum would cover their expenses.

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo is a widower and has none of his family to give any information, however, as to with him. His son was married last what are charged up to the Government month to the daughter of Mrs. Isaac or what he intends to charge up to himmonth to the daughter of Mrs. Isaac Emerson of Baltimore, and has set up an establishment for himself. The Secretary lives at the Army and Navy Club, where a man may have comfort FOUND $10,000 HIDDEN IN LINING OF OLD BAG

Widow of George J. Enell Made Discovery at Hotel, Testimony at Bankruptcy Hearing.

At a hearing before Commissions Alexander Glichrist in the bankruptcy proceedings against the Kendall Nail and Supply Co., Ralph V. Wechsler a brother-in-law of George J. Enell, president of the Kendall Company, today testified that the latter's widow, afternoon. Mrs. Schwarts and her Gabrielle J. Enell, had told him that she found $10,000 hidden in the lining of called The Highlands, further out Con-necticut avenue. His establishment and manner of living are similar to the style

The creditors alleged that just before

He confided to a friend the other day that he was tired of hotel life and wanted to find a bachelor apartment wherein he could install a Southern money to him and that was all she belonging to Mrs. Schwarts were found money to him and that was all she knew about it.

The creditors are trying to locate the Attorney-General's cost of thing is likely to go up a bit, although even at an asset, although there is an attach-that he could declare monthly dividends ment standing against it.

BEITISH ARMY AVIATOR IS KILLED IN FLIGHT

SALISBURY, England, July 17 .- Major A. W. Hewetson of the Royal Artillery is to take a modest house in T street, in a better residential section, but his rent and expenditures oction, but his day he follows a second many and a member of the military flying corps, was fall date. front and expenditures will not exceed his salary by a 50 per cent. margin.

Secretary Houston of the Department too sharply and overbalancing. On striking the ground the motor exploded for his family in H street, between the second burned the aeroplane to aches.

WOMAN WHO WAS SHOPPERS SEE SHOT ON STREET MAN SHOOT GIRL AND KILL HIMSELF

Believe Suitor and Sweetheart Planned Suicide Pact in Crowded Sixth Avenue.

IN AMBULANCE: DIES

Hundreds Witness Double Tragedy-Man Had Been Despondent for Months.

arnost argument on the sidewalk on the east side of Sixth avenue, midway between Twenty-third and Twentyfourth streets, attracted the attention to ories of terror and a general seattering when the man drew a revolver and pointed it at the womanie head.

She did not try to run, but addressed ers to be in the nature of a dare. The man fired twice and the woman dropped with a bullet wound in her left temple and another in her cheek. Then the man shot himself in the right temple and fell dying to the sidewalk.

Patrolman Gavegan fought his way from Twenty-third street through the growd. Other policemen ran to the scene. The entire street in front of the fasonic Temple was blocked almost imsediately and the policemen had to force a way for an ambulance they had called from New York Hospital. The man died in the ambulance on the way to the hospital.

While waiting for the ambulance Gavegan questioned the woman, who was slowly lapsing into unconsciousness. She said she was Mary Spalino, twentyone years old, single, a dress finisher, of of No. 36 West Twenty-seventh street. The dead man, she said, was Frank Castario, a barber, twenty-eight years old, of No. 221 West Twenty-seventh street, John J. Hanley of No. 301 West Twenty-fourth street and Felix J. seventh street were witnesses of the nue. The man appeared to be half crased, but the woman was cool. These three witnesses, with others, trailed along to see what might happen, and were rewarded by the sight of a street tragedy.

THEY WERE ENGAGED TO BE MARRIED.

tempt at murder and the suicide had grown out of a quarrel. This was de-years and were engaged to be married. Six months ago Castario, who was the proper. Of course a high standard of discrimination governs a Secretary in determining what social expenses were incurred in heart of the formal social expenses were incurred in the fo and the wedding was postponed. Casta to resumed work in his barber shop but found himself failing and consulted specialists who told him another operation was imperative. He became despondent and had recently been try-ing to urge the girl into a suicide pact. They met accidentally to-day at Seventh avenue and Twanty-third street and the relatives and friends of the pair believe that she had allowed him to persuade her to meet death without resistance when he drew his revolver and shot her on the street.

TWO WOMEN BEAT UP MAN FOUND UNDER BED

Not Only That, but Their Screams Lead to the Arrest of the Intruder.

Caught in a burgisrious visit to the Atkins avenue, East New York, Joseph Schmidt, a well dressed, dapper Mittle man emayed to fight his way out this Schmidt and gave him such a thorough besting that he jumped from a second story window to the yard, a distance of about twenty-five feel, to escape them. He sourced through the flat house set by Secretary Garrison.

M'REYNOLDS SEEKS BACHELOR

FLAT AND SOUTHERN COOK.

Attorney-General Moleynolds is a bachelor, living at the Shoreham Hotel. He confided to a friend the other day

Mrs. Schwarts returned to her flat from a shopping tour with Mrs. Scudder and heard a noise in the bedroom. She entered and found Schmidt under the bed. The two women pulled him out and when he put up a fight they gave him all the fight he wanted.

ALMANAC FOR TO-DAY. 4.43 Sun sets. 7.29 Moon sets. THE TIDES. INCOMING STEAMSHIPS.

DUE TO-DAY.
Linceln, Resturger
Remburg, Breelast,

evidence, involving the preparation of a false amended complaint, the comthese papers did not constitute a destruction of evidence since the action had been finally terminated. There is no testimony tending to show that any one or that there was an agreement to that effect. We are satisfied from an examination of the authorities that a state of facts such as this may be propof pleadings.

MARY

35PALINO

COHALAN CHARGES

DISMISSED, BUT SAY

'JUDGE MADE MISTAKE'

(Continued from First Page.)

that the work by Connolly's corporation was satisfactory, fully up to the specifications and rendered at fair and rea-

ON INFLUENCE.

"There is nothing to indicate any im onable price.

"The respondent testified that settlement was made by him for the purpose of avoiding publicity. The respondent and it was a mistake to have yielded. The committee finds that the $4,000 note given by Connolly to Cohalan and subsequently returned was "given as an admission of indebtedness by Conmade an "untrue and misleading" statement in reply to the Connolly's charges. the report finding:

"Action in not sustaining the truth of the other specifications, dispenses with charge, and we find that the statement referred to was not false and mis-

JUSTICE COHALAN SAILS.

Declines to Discuss Recent Investigation-Says Incident is Closed.

Supreme Court Justice Daniel F. Cohalan sailed to-day on the Adriatic for his country place in Ireland. His seven children preceded him on the Baltic about three weeks ago. The Justice, who was to have salled with them, was delayed on account of the proce...ngs at Albany of charges made against him by John A. Co tolly.

There was a large compan; of Justice

Cohalan's friends at the pier. He declined to discuss the recent proceeding flat of Mrs. Mina Schwarts at No. 221 at Albany and before the Bar Association except to say: "The incident is glosed, and as far as I am concerned, will remain closed."

> J. GLASSBERG Announces the Opening of THIRD STORE -at-

511 6th Avenue, Near 31st Street, with a Most Exclusive Selection

THE CELEBRATED SHORT TO VAMP SHOES

COLONIALS. PIMPS AND SOUR CORNER TO ALL LEATH- SQ.00 REAL CURAN AND PRENCH SUP J. GLASSBERG

3 Convenient Stores, 511 6th Av., near 31st St. 58 3d Av., N. Y. 225 West 42d St. Near 10th 8t. West of Brang. Illustrated Style Book "W" Free

FRAWLEY BOARD BECKER'S AGENT, TO HIT SULZER ON USE OF INFLUENCE

Decision Made After Assemblyman Sweet Tells of Govemor's Talk to Him.

ALS MY. N. Y., July 17.-Bugene Lamb Richards, counsel for the Frawley Legislative Committee, announced at the to improperly influence legislators." appropriating $6,000 for a bridge in ence with him this afternoon. "Assemblyman, how did you vote on plied that he had voted against it.

"How are you going to vote on it at | Hoping to buy judicial mercy, or por the extra session?" the Governor continued, according to the witness. "Rememter, I take good care of my pose the primary measure and his bil was vetoed, although it had been approved by Superintendent of Public Works Peck and by John H. Delaney, Commissioner of Efficiency and Econ-Commissioner Delaney called to stand, identified a communication in which he strongly recommended the Sweet bill to the Governor.

Assemblyman John L. Patrie of Greens County told on the stand about a road bill put through the Legislature by him of the Grand Jury , a the charge of per-Tork, was properly awarded without and signed by Gov. Sulzer toward the own trial for the murder of Waverry competitive bidding by the department and of the thirty day period prescribed carter, a negro gambler who was shot during one of Becker's raids upon a few parts of the regular during one of Becker's raids upon a part of the regular during one of Becker's raids upon a competitive bidding by law after the end of the regular during one of Becker's raids upon a competitive bidding by law after the end of the regular during one of Becker's raids upon a competitive bidding by the department and signed by law after the end of the regular during one of Becker's raids upon a competitive bidding by the department and signed by law after the end of the regular during one of Becker's raids upon a competitive bidding by the department and the competitive bidding by the competitive bidding by the competitive bidding by the competitive b legislative session. Mr. Patrie had opposed the Governor's primary bill at this session.

The witness said he had b NOTHING TO SHOW AGREEMENT tioned repeatedly by the Governor befor . the signing of this bill as to what his attitude would be on the primary hill at the impending extraordinary ses see my way clear to support his measure," said Mr. Patrie. The witness voted for the Governor's bill at the Patrie said he had been urged to support the Governor's measure just pefore his own bill was signed by John A. Hennessy, one of the Governor's stoner Delaney had advised the Governor not to approve the road bill.

TURKS NEAR KIRK-KILISSEH

Months Ago by Bulgarians.

PLITT, ACCUSES MEN HIGHER UP

Charged With Perjury, He Seeks to Implicate Inspector as Price of Mercy.

It was said in the District-Attorney office to-day that District-Attorney Whitman, at first incredulous of the value of the "confession" made by the matter of "widely published efforts inspector and reaching certain localassemblyman Thaddeus C. Sweet of Lieut. Charles Becker, now charged Oswego testified to having called on with perjury, be brought from the West Gov. Sulzer to get his approval of a bill Fifty-fourth street prison for a conferappropriating 20,000 for a brings in connection with the barge canal system, lengthy statement Pilit made to Asmy direct primary bill?" witness said read by the District-Attorney and is the Governor asked him. Mr. Sweet re- said to have interested him beyond what he anticipated.

> the Police Department, Plitt sent a request from the Tombs yesterday afternoon for an interview with the District-Attorney. Assistant District-Attorney Groen received him instead and questioned him for four hours along the lines of Plitt's self-professed knowledge of police graft. He then ordered that Plitt should be removed from the Tombs to the West Fifty-fourth street prison. to the West Fifty-fourth street prison. It is said that the former satellite of Becker has shown an unusual knowledge of intimate police matters in his said is capable of verification.

Plitt was committed to the Tombs to $10,000 ball recently to await the action Harlem resort. Plitt is alleged to have committed perjury when he swore he did not have a revolver on the night of

THOUGHT HE WAS LEPER. MADE BREAK FOR DOOR

"Your Honor, I think this man is a leper," hoursely whispered Court Attendant Edward Doyle to Magistrate Miller in the New Jersey Avenue Court in East New York to-day.

The remark reached the ears of those in the front of the court-room and there was a stampede for the door. The prisoner, William Cornish, who gave his address as No. 89 Powell street, was the only unconcerned person in the com. Magistrate Miller took one glance at Cornish's stumps of hands, which were blotched with white streaks, and then ordered him hustled below and an from the Bradford street hospital and SOFIA, July 17 .- The Turkish army, examined Cornish. He found that the by forced marches, is approaching the man's ten fingers had been amputated town of Kirk-Killsseh, taken by the years ago because of severe frostbites Bulgarians after heavy fighting at the and the white blotches were the scars beginning of the Balkan war. Many of from the operation. The joke was of the population are reported to be Doyle, and his colleagues in the courtroom did not let him forget it.

is the direct result of overwrought nerves, and indicates a condition of the nervous system which should have immediate treatment before a complete breakdown occurs. Werner's Safe Nervine Warners Safe Remedia

AN ACCOUNT Saturday Syenings 104th St. "L" Station at corner

COLUMBUS AVE BET. 103 & 104 ST

OUR TERMS: 300 Down on $500 500 Down on 17500 750 Down on 100 00 LARGER ANDUN'S IN PROPORTION OPEN MONDAY& SATURDAY 2174-3 AVE BETWEEN

Combination [Looking Glass and Picture Finished in whi enamel Mahogany or Early English. Size 27 inches high. 14 inches wide. Worth $3.50. No mail or pho rders. One to

To every purchaser of the above will give FREE I Bottle of Suh Ray Furniture Polish the best made.

Call and see our elaborate Stock of Furniture Carpets, Housefurnishing Goods, etc.

Established 70 Years MYRTLE AVE., COR. BRIDGE ST. BROOKLYN, N. Y.

$2 HOLED Lion's Head Ring, 50c

Ladies' or Genia'—lar Dia-mond in mouth—ruby sees; mounting guaranteed for a years. Brilliancy of stones issue foreser. Order by mail of a not of the sees of the families or colo. Our families and fewery mailed free. Za-

JAR DIAMOND (0 Bet. Broadway and 4th Are.

SPECIAL SALE TEA & COFFEE 5 Lbs. for $1.00

DIED

O'BRIEN.—On Weaterday, July 16, at his residence, 263 Hudson street, New York City, ALPHONSUS A. O'BRIEN, son of Amelia and the late William U'Brien. Funeral at his late residence Priday, the 15th inst., at 2 P. M. Kindly emis flowers.

HELP WANTED-MALE. CUTTER experienced on ladies trimmed and tailored hats. James G. Johnson & Co. Dept. 3, 649 Broadway

RAILEGOAD BHAK EMEN, between the ages of 31 and 48 years, for road and yard services cannination; step application mean pass processor cannination; step 3.

"Wants" Sunday World Monday Morning Wonders Work

PENNY & POUND PROFIT Goods Carefully Packed and Shipped by Parcel Post or Express to All Parts, Including Vacation Resorts Special for Thursday Specials for Friday

EXTRA SPECIAL SALE

THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

FINE CANE GRANULATED

SUGAR

 $3\frac{1}{2}$ LBS. 14c

WITH OTHER PURCHASES

THE ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA

Suggestion for Thursday

Corner West Broadway

ASSORTED FRUIT DISCS Orange.

strawberry. lemon. peach and place apple Julice are used. Just what you want for midsummer: a 25c 10c value claewhere.

FOUND BOX

HIGH GRADE CHOCOLATES OR BONBONS AND CHOCOLATES DOE NOUGAT AND FUDGE—Our regular 25c grade of this unour-passed confection at passed confection at POUND BOX Park Row. Cortlandt. 125th Street and Brooklyn Stores open every evening until 11 o'clock. All our stores open Saturday evenings until 11 o'clock. Corner Fulton Street 147 NASSAU STREET Corner Church Street Park Row and Nassau St.

Corner Church Street

A Row and Maseau St.

At City Hall Park

400 BROOME ST.

Corner Centre Street

9 Steries

147 NASSAU STREET

246 W. 125th STREET

Just East of Eighth Avenue

23 W. 34th STREET

Just East of Sixth Avenue

472 Fulton Street, cotner Elm Place, Brooklyn.

CHOCOLATE COVERED PEACH MELBA Bich, sweet juices of Fresh Peac davoring a wholesome cream co to a thick chocolate cov-POUND BOX 10C

This Price for Greater New York Only